

PREMIER PRODUCTIONS AND JEREMY CAMP ANNOUNCE THE “I STILL BELIEVE TOUR”

20-CITY TOUR FEATURES JEREMY CAMP WITH GUESTS RILEY CLEMMONS AND JORDAN ST. CYR

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (Jan. 14, 2022) – Premier Productions and GRAMMY®-nominated singer/songwriter Jeremy Camp announce the I Still Believe Tour with special guests Riley Clemmons and Jordan St. Cyr. The tour will span 20 cities and features some of Camp’s biggest hits, including “Dead Man Walking,” “Keep Me in the Moment,” “When You Speak,” “I Still Believe” and many more!

“I can’t wait to get out on the road for the I Still Believe Tour in March,” says Camp. “It’s going to be an amazing sight to be worshipping again with people soon! I’m excited to have Riley Clemmons and Jordan St. Cyr, and love that they wanted to jump on board and be a part of this tour! Evangelism is such a huge part of my heart, so I want to encourage everyone to bring a friend who needs to experience the love of Jesus; that is what this night is going to be about, celebrating Jesus’ name!”

Along with performing his biggest hits, this tour welcomes Riley Clemmons and Jordan St. Cyr as opening acts. In 2017, Riley Clemmons released her breakout debut single “Broken Prayers,” which has generated over 30 million global streams since its release. Her sophomore album Godsend was released on June 4th. Meanwhile Jordan St. Cyr’s latest single “Fires” stayed on the Billboard Christian Airplay charts for 45 weeks and climbed to No. 5 while being played on major networks and stations for more than a year, reaching 7.7 million people a week.

“We’re so honored to be working with Jeremy on this special tour,” says SVP of Global Touring with Premier Productions, Dan Rauter. “His authenticity and passion have resonated with audiences from day one and made him an important fixture in our space. His message of hope and perseverance is as timely and relevant now as it was when he first burst on the scene with “I Still Believe.” We’re thrilled to be able to give audiences the opportunity to experience these songs live and hear Jeremy’s powerful testimony firsthand.”

Last year, Camp released his latest studio album When You Speak and followed up the album release with a tour by the same name. In 2020, Camp celebrated the release of the film I STILL BELIEVE, which chronicles his personal story, starring KJ Apa, Britt Robertson, Shania Twain and Gary Sinise. Camp also released a marriage book with his wife Adrienne, In Unison (April 2020, Harvest House) and released a greatest hits album in February 2020, along with re-releasing a memoir, I Still Believe (February, Thomas Nelson).

The I Still Believe Tour will kick off on March 10th in Amarillo, TX, and make stops in San Antonio, TX; Lexington, KY; Tampa, FL; Knoxville, TN and more before wrapping on May 1st in Melbourne, FL. For a full list of dates and cities, visit IStillBelieveTour.com.

Audiences can sign up for the pre-sale now at IStillBelieveTour.com with tickets going on sale to the public on January 20th.

About Jeremy Camp:

Throughout his 18-year career, Capitol CMG artist Jeremy Camp has established himself with landmark accolades including:

- Over 5M lifetime albums sold and has crossed a billion streams across streaming services
- Holds title for most No. 1 singles among solo artists on the Christian Airplay chart
- Billboard’s #2 artist of the Decade in 2010
- 41 No. 1 radio hits across all formats
- 5 RIAA Gold Albums
- 1 GRAMMY® nomination, 3 American Music Award nominations, 5 Dove Awards and 4 ASCAP “Songwriter of the Year” Awards

About Riley Clemmons:

Riley Clemmons is a 21-year-old artist from Nashville, TN who has accumulated over 210 million global streams and 50 million YouTube video views since the beginning of her almost decade long career. After spending years honing her craft in writers’ rooms, Riley sky-rocketed onto the scene with her 2017 Capitol CMG debut single “Broken Prayers,” which has generated over 30 million global streams since its release. Her 2018 self-titled debut quickly entered the Billboard Heatseekers Albums Chart, debuting at No. 13. Her latest single, “Keep On Hoping,” has become Riley’s fastest growing single, garnering over 5 million streams across digital platforms in its first 8 weeks and climbing the radio airplay and Billboard charts. In 2021, she was nominated as Female Artist of the Year at the 9th Annual K-LOVE Fan Awards, marking a first in her career in addition to becoming the youngest nominee in the show’s history. An accomplished composer, performer, producer, and recording artist, Riley draws inspiration from life experiences, blending musical influences ranging from pop to classic rock to create music that is as catchy as it is relatable.

About Jordan St. Cyr:

Having started writing poetry and music as well as leading worship at his church at 14, Jordan St. Cyr is not new to a life surrounded by the arts. His love for writing was inspired by his father, Gerry St. Cyr, who groomed and helped him understand the craft during the early years. At 19, Jordan found himself connecting the dots between music and the positive impact it had on the social justice issues of the time. With the guidance of Canadian veterans, Steve Bell and John Buller, he found a recording home at DeCapo Studios in Winnipeg with producer Nolan Balzer. Since then, he has been nominated and won several awards and competitions including CM United Christian Artist of the Year (2018), Western Canadian Music Awards nominee (2018), Nashville Rising Star winner (2017). Most recently, Jordan was nominated for eight GMA Covenant Awards (2019) and walked away with five including Song of the Year, New Artist of the Year, Recorded Song of the Year, Male Vocalist of the Year, and Pop Song of the Year, making it a very exciting start to the year and confirmation that he is doing what he has been called to do. Jordan St. Cyr lives with his wife, Heather and their four children in Niverville, Manitoba.
