“Over the last year I’ve come to realize that I have taken for granted the ability to gather together as the church in worship,” shared Chris. “Ever since I was young I have felt a calling on my life to help give people a voice to worship God and for me, I can’t think of a more critical moment in time for us to come back together and worship... unified and as one voice. Worship is more than a concert, it’s about your soul connecting to God, it’s eternal and an opportunity to join in everlasting praise. To not only worship outside amidst God’s creation but to do it alongside some of the most influential worship leaders in the church right now is something I am honored to be a part of. This is truly going to be a moment of impact and one we will never forget.”

“There is such an excitement and expectation to be together to worship Jesus after such a long and devastating year of loss,” said best-selling artist, Kari Jobe. “The anointing of the Holy Spirit is going to be so strong. I cannot wait to be together with everyone!”

“We are thrilled to see audiences gather again with Chris Tomlin, Kari Jobe, and Bethel Music,” says Premier Productions Senior Talent Buyer, Jonathan Roberts. “This amazing group of leaders have written songs that mark all of our lives. This is certain to be one of the biggest highlight events of the summer. We proudly present events that stir the heart and move the soul.”

“There is nothing comparable to worshipping with people in person again,” says Jenn Johnson of Bethel Music. “We are so excited to lead worship with our friends and worship God with over 10,000 people.”

For the first time ever these leaders will be together on one one stage, leading in one voice and lifting up one name. This worship tour is more than a concert, but a triumph of the ability to worship together and celebrate the good side of a bad season. The 13-city amphitheater tour will kick-off on August 13 in Cedar Rapids, Iowa and will stop in Oklahoma City, Okla., Austin, Texas, Charlotte, N.C., before the final show on Sept. 3 in Jacksonville, Fla.
